

Standing high above Funchal and well removed from the hustle and bustle, much of Sao Gonçalo enjoys panoramic views towards the sea. In bygone days, there were vast estates incorporating hunting lodges and ornamental gardens. This is also home to the famous Palheiro Golf Course.

High above Funchal, this lush hillside is ideally situated for exploring the bustling city centre, whilst enjoying that 'away from it all' feeling. The main centre is only a few kilometres away, as is the Botanical Garden and both island golf courses.

Casa Velha do Palheiro ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

This former 18th century hunting lodge has been transformed into an exclusive country house style hotel. It is situated adjacent to the renowned Palheiro Gardens and offers direct access to the famous Golf Course which adjoins the hotel grounds. Casa Velha is certainly a haven of tranquillity.
