

Funchal

Elegant colonial style architecture gives a graceful air to the busy narrow streets. The daily fruit and fish market is ablaze with local colour. Explore the old quarter with its cobbled streets, taste vintage Madeira wine in the many bodegas or be tempted by the hand embroidered linen and dazzling jewellery and leather stores. This bustling city by the sea is ever vibrant, contrasting totally with the tranquillity of the island interior.

Savoy Resort ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

The celebrated and long-established Classic Savoy has, in recent years, been joined by the Royal Savoy, located directly on the ocean front. All the facilities in the resort complex are available to guests of both hotels.

Three outdoor heated swimming pools, jacuzzi and pool for children. Indoor heated pools, spas, saunas, Turkish bath, gym. Massage and hydro-massage, seaweed, facial and beauty treatments. Two tennis courts, putting green, golf driving nets, croquet lawn, mini-golf, playground for young children. Sea-walk promenade and sea bathing jetty.

Classic Savoy

Famous since the early 1900's, this traditional and elegant hotel is just twenty minutes walk from the town centre and ideally placed for the restaurant quarter. The air-conditioned bedrooms have cable television and minibar. There are vast lounges throughout the ground floor. Cocktail bar with live music. Restaurant with buffet and waiter service and nightly entertainment. The Fleur de Lys Grill offers à la carte gourmet dining. Light snacks are available throughout the day on the garden terrace.
